

Notice to Homes for Islington residents

Are you represented? Are you 1 in 1000?

Are you a Homes for Islington resident not currently represented by a Tenants and Residents Association?

Why not stand for membership of your Area Housing Panel and help ensure that residents' views are listened to before housing proposals affecting management of homes are considered?

Homes for Islington is holding elections for 1 in 1000 representatives for the five Area Housing Panels. If you are not represented, why not volunteer to join your local Area Housing Panel and join in discussions about the housing services provided by Homes for Islington and its contractors.

Meetings to elect representatives for each of the five housing areas will be held from the week beginning 12 July 2010.

Information about what the position involves and the date and time of the meetings in your area is available through your local Area Housing Office or on the Homes for Islington website: www.homesforislington.org.uk.

If you are a council tenant or leaseholder and are interested in standing, please contact the Community and Service Development Officer at your local Area Housing Office:
